

TRAVEL CHECK-LIST

Hey friend, how many times your masters forgot to take your favorite blanket or even your medication!?

Well with my checklist no more risk!

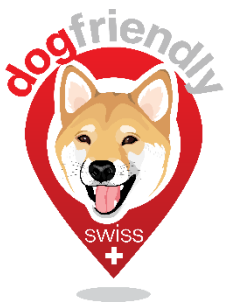

- ☐ Sufficient water
- ☐ Sufficient kibbles
- ☐ Treats (personally I love cheese 😊)
- ☐ Bowl and bottle travel
- ☐ Medicines if your dog is on treatment
- ☐ Various medications (against diarrhea, travel sickness, etc.)
- ☐ First aid kit (tick clamp, disinfectant, etc.)
- ☐ Favorite Toys
- ☐ Towel to wipe it off (for example for a rainy day or because your dog loves to go in the water 😊)
- ☐ Cooling vest or mat during summer
- ☐ Harness or / and collar depending on the type of activity planned

Tip: It is always useful for your dog to have a medal with your phone number (with your country code) in the event of a runaway

- ☐ Leash or / and lanyard depending on the type of activity planned
- ☐ GPS if it has one AND its charger
- ☐ Poop bags (yes, think about nature! 😊)
- ☐ Car transport cage / safety harness
- ☐ Life jacket for aquatic activities
- ☐ Blanket / basket
- ☐ Shampoo and comb
- ☐ Dog clothing according to its breed and expected temperatures
- ☐ Sunscreen according to the breed of your dog
- ☐ In case of emergencies, note the addresses of veterinarians who are on your route
(Prevention is better than cure! 😊)

Are you going abroad?

- ☐ Take his passport
- ☐ Remember, wearing the chip and registering on the AMICUS database are mandatory
- ☐ Check that your RC is also valid in the country of destination
- ☐ Find out about compulsory vaccines (in principle the rules are the same in the EU but it is better to check with the competent authorities in each country)
- ☐ Find out about the legislation of the country of destination; for example, the wearing of muzzles is compulsory (especially on public transport) or the conditions of transport by car (cage or net are compulsory depending on the country)
- ☐ Your dog is on the list of so-called dangerous dogs, is it allowed in the country of your destination?

Also to think about ...

- ☐ You sleep at the hotel, are dogs allowed?
- ☐ Find out if the chosen destination is "dogfriendly" (hotels, activities, transport, etc.).
- ☐ For Switzerland, find all this information on our DFS map!
- ☐ Check that the deworming has been done according to your veterinarian's prescription
- ☐ Depending on the places / countries of destination and times of the year, treat it against parasites (fleas, ticks, mosquitoes)
